AFRICAN DIASPORA

song, drum & dance CAMP

Eumerella Camp, Anglesea. Friday, 26th - Sunday, 28th Sept 2008

A weekend journey, celebrating the soulful and global rhythms of the African Diaspora. Learn from the best African teachers resident in Australia with Wild Moves International. Get rooted to the earth and connected to the universe by awakening your wild moves through the elements of fire, water, air and earth. Friday night begins with a ritual libation to our ancestors. Experience the release of Winter with freestyle move and groove in The Wave 5 Rhythms™ fused with Surf Coast live percussion. Witness the healing power of music and dance through the exclusive film launch of Children of the Blue Light, set in the slave dungeons of Cape Coast, Ghana, West Africa. Awaken your new body on Saturday for a journey exploring dances, rhythms and songs that harness community spirit from across the African continent and their influence on the New World.
